Promotional bundle
Telephony & cordless

Up to 20% off Aastra's 600d series DECT handset bundles.

Multitone is offering Aastra's new 610d, 620d and 630d DECT handset bundles at a reduced price if you place an order before 31 December 2010. The promotional bundles includes either a 610d, 620d or 630d DECT handset and a multinational power supply.

610d DECT handset

The 610d has all the functionality of standard DECT handsets with a monochrome display. The handset has a SOS function to ring a preset number allowing staff to call for help if needed.

620d DECT handset

In addition to a specified SOS key, vibrate alert and standard features of a DECT handset, the 620d has a full colour display and can be used with a Bluetooth headset, making users truly able to work and communicate at the same time.

630d DECT handset

As well as the features of the 620d, the 630d was designed with industry in mind. Not only is it IP65 rated, dust proof and water proof but it has a no movement alarm, escape alarm and man-down alarm to alert staff if users are under attack, fall ill or have an accident.

NOTE: Access-IP (OpenCom 100) systems require version 9.x software to support the 600d series DECT handsets.

How much will the handset bundles cost?
